Elections

This section contains unique information for recent elections if any.

Florida Statute § 104.15 makes it illegal for an unqualified elector to willfully vote in an election. The statute states: "Whoever, knowing he or she is not a qualified elector, willfully votes at any election is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084."

In Florida, a "qualified elector" under § 97.041 is a U.S. citizen, at least 18 years old, a Florida resident, and registered to vote in their county of residence by the book closing date—29 days before an election, per § 97.055. Only willful voting with knowledge of ineligibility is penalized, not honest mistakes, with penalties up to 5 years in prison and a $5,000 fine. If a book closing falls on a holiday or Sunday, an additional day is accounted for when assessing compliance in the table.

Removal from the rolls. If an inactive voter does not sign a petition, vote, request a vote-by-mail ballot or update his or her voter registration record by the second federal general election after the date he or she was placed on inactive status, the Supervisor shall remove the name of the inactive voter from the FVRS no later than December 31 in the same year of the second federal general election. Anomalies

This section reports on anomalies found in the voter registrations.

Elector That Appears to Have Voted in an Election Before Being Registered

This query looks for voters who show having voted prior to their date of registration.

This situation should only occur when a voter for some reason becomes ineligible and subsequently gets re-registered. When a voter re-registers they get a new voter ID yet their old voting history stays intact. This then shows up as voting prematurely.

Another possibility is a data entry error or a bug in the election management software.

There were 2 voters where this happened, and this is how they casted their votes:

Voter ID	Registration Date	Election Date	Vote Cast
102934550	2024-05-17	2016-08-30	Voted Early
